

What has happened to me
~The story of an Uyghur man who now lives in Japan~

However,

on March 24th, 2017,

my father
went missing.

he was taken by the police.

He was summoned
to a regular meeting with the local authorities.
When he went into the building,
the door was shut...

He had committed a crime named
"picking quarrels and provoking trouble."

After a closed trial
without a lawyer,
he received a sentence of six years'
imprisonment.

My family went to the prison and saw him through videophone.

The Communist Party
of China
treats me
well.

I'm OK.

Also,
I am allowed to go to the school.

I am grateful to the Communist Party
of China.

I feel good.
I was liberated from a harmful thought.

He told them so.

After that, about ten of my relatives were taken away one after another.

"They treat me well.
I feel good.
I was liberated from a harmful thought.

Sometimes,
letters came from the detention camp.

Like my father,

I am grateful to the Communist Party of China,"

the letters said.

on the Internet as evidence.

My uncle
published the letter

he was taken away.

Soon

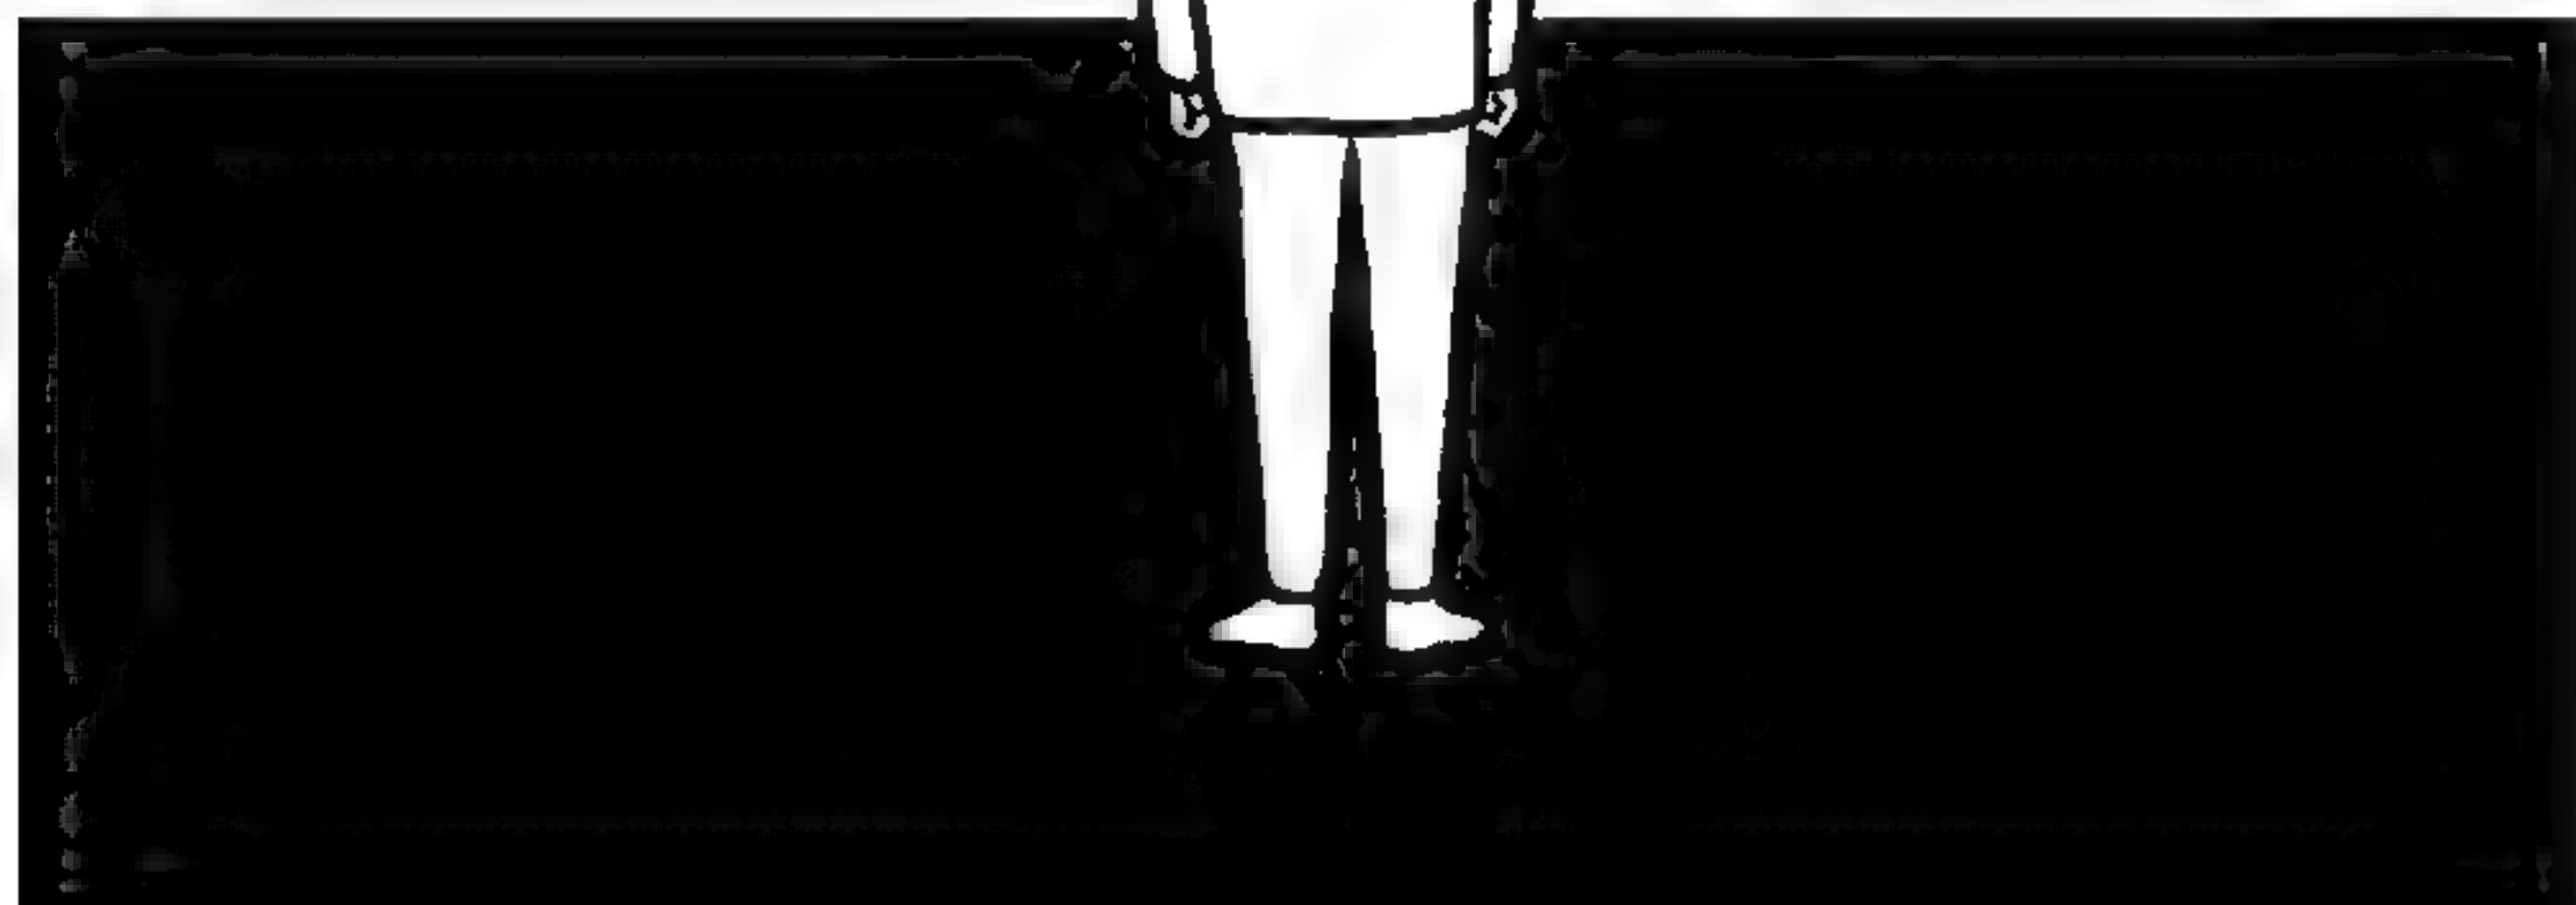

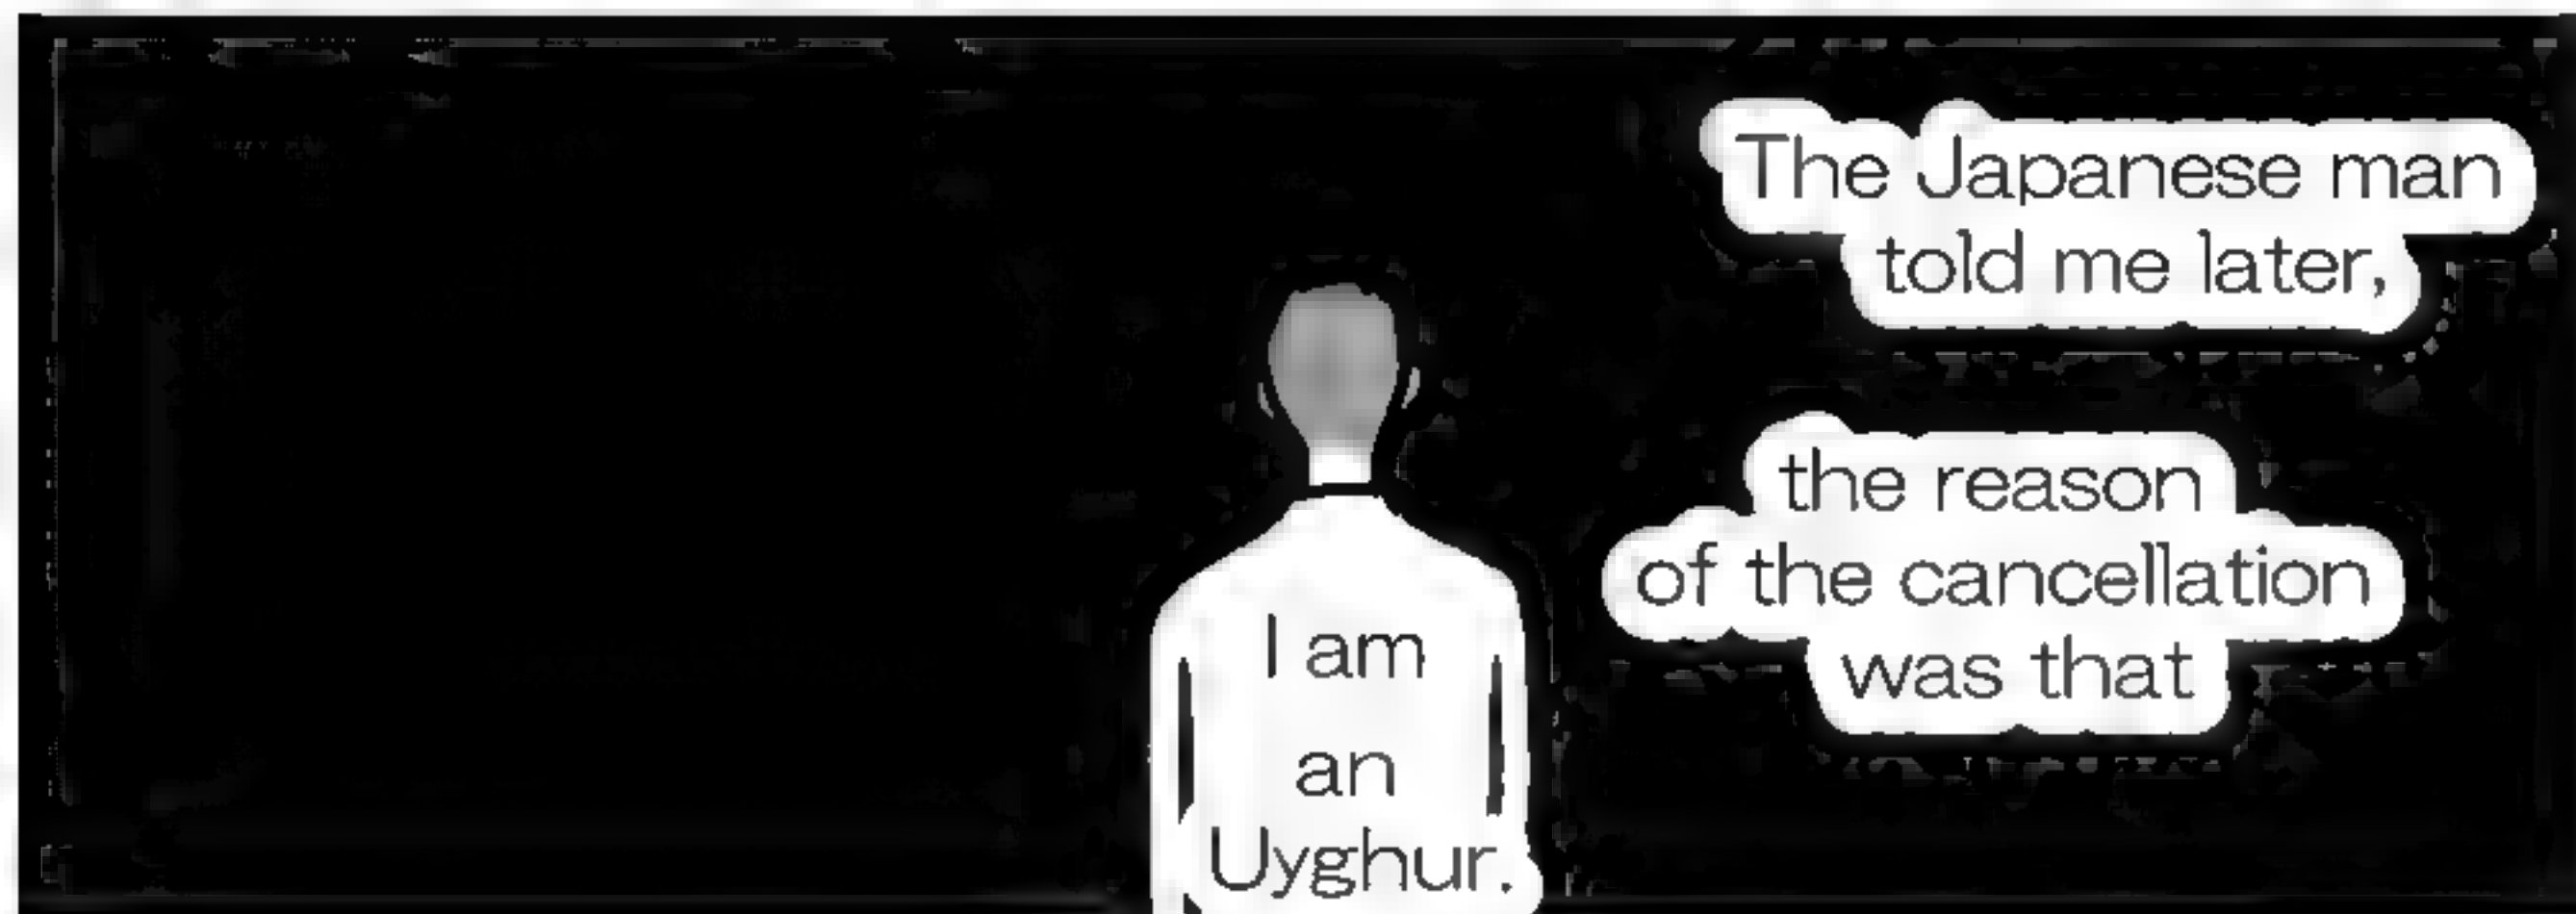

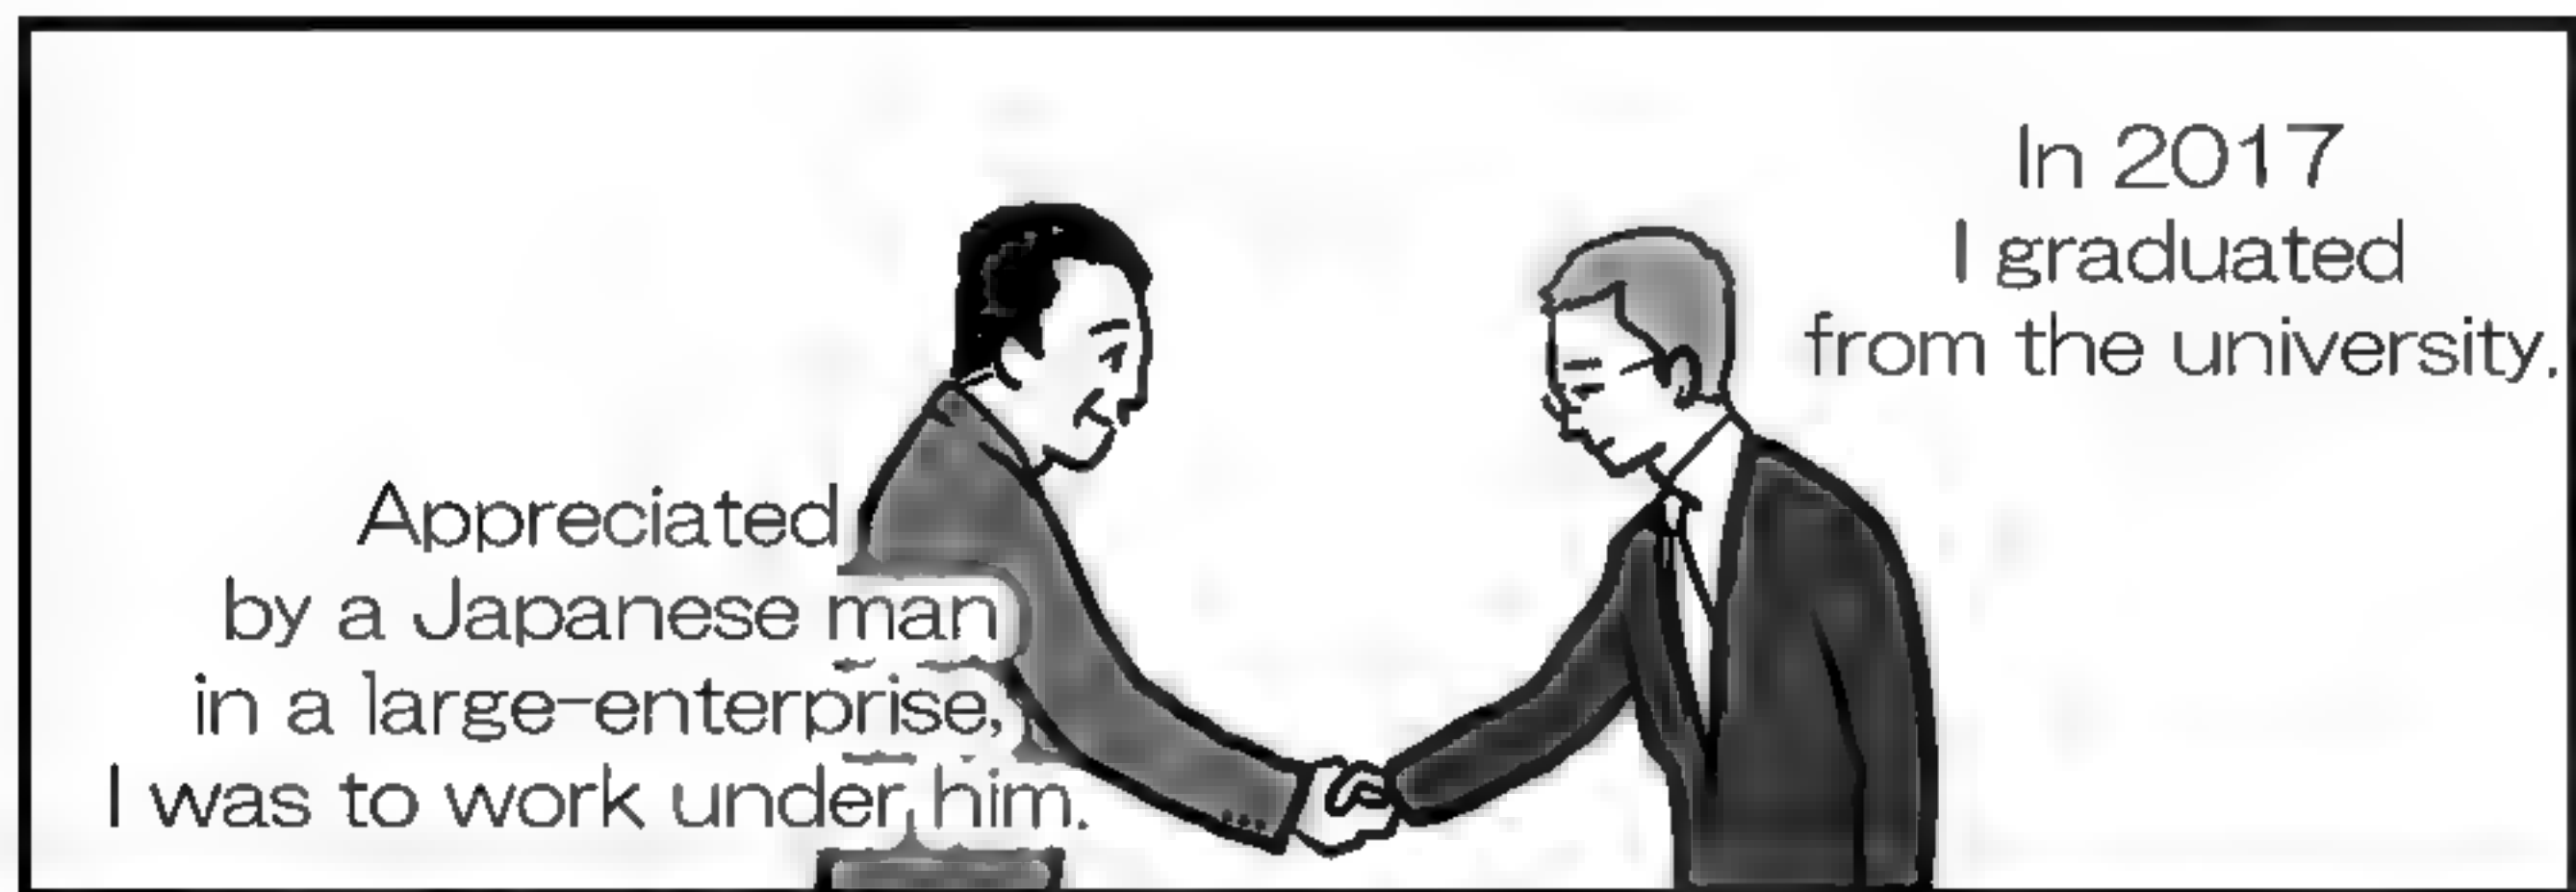

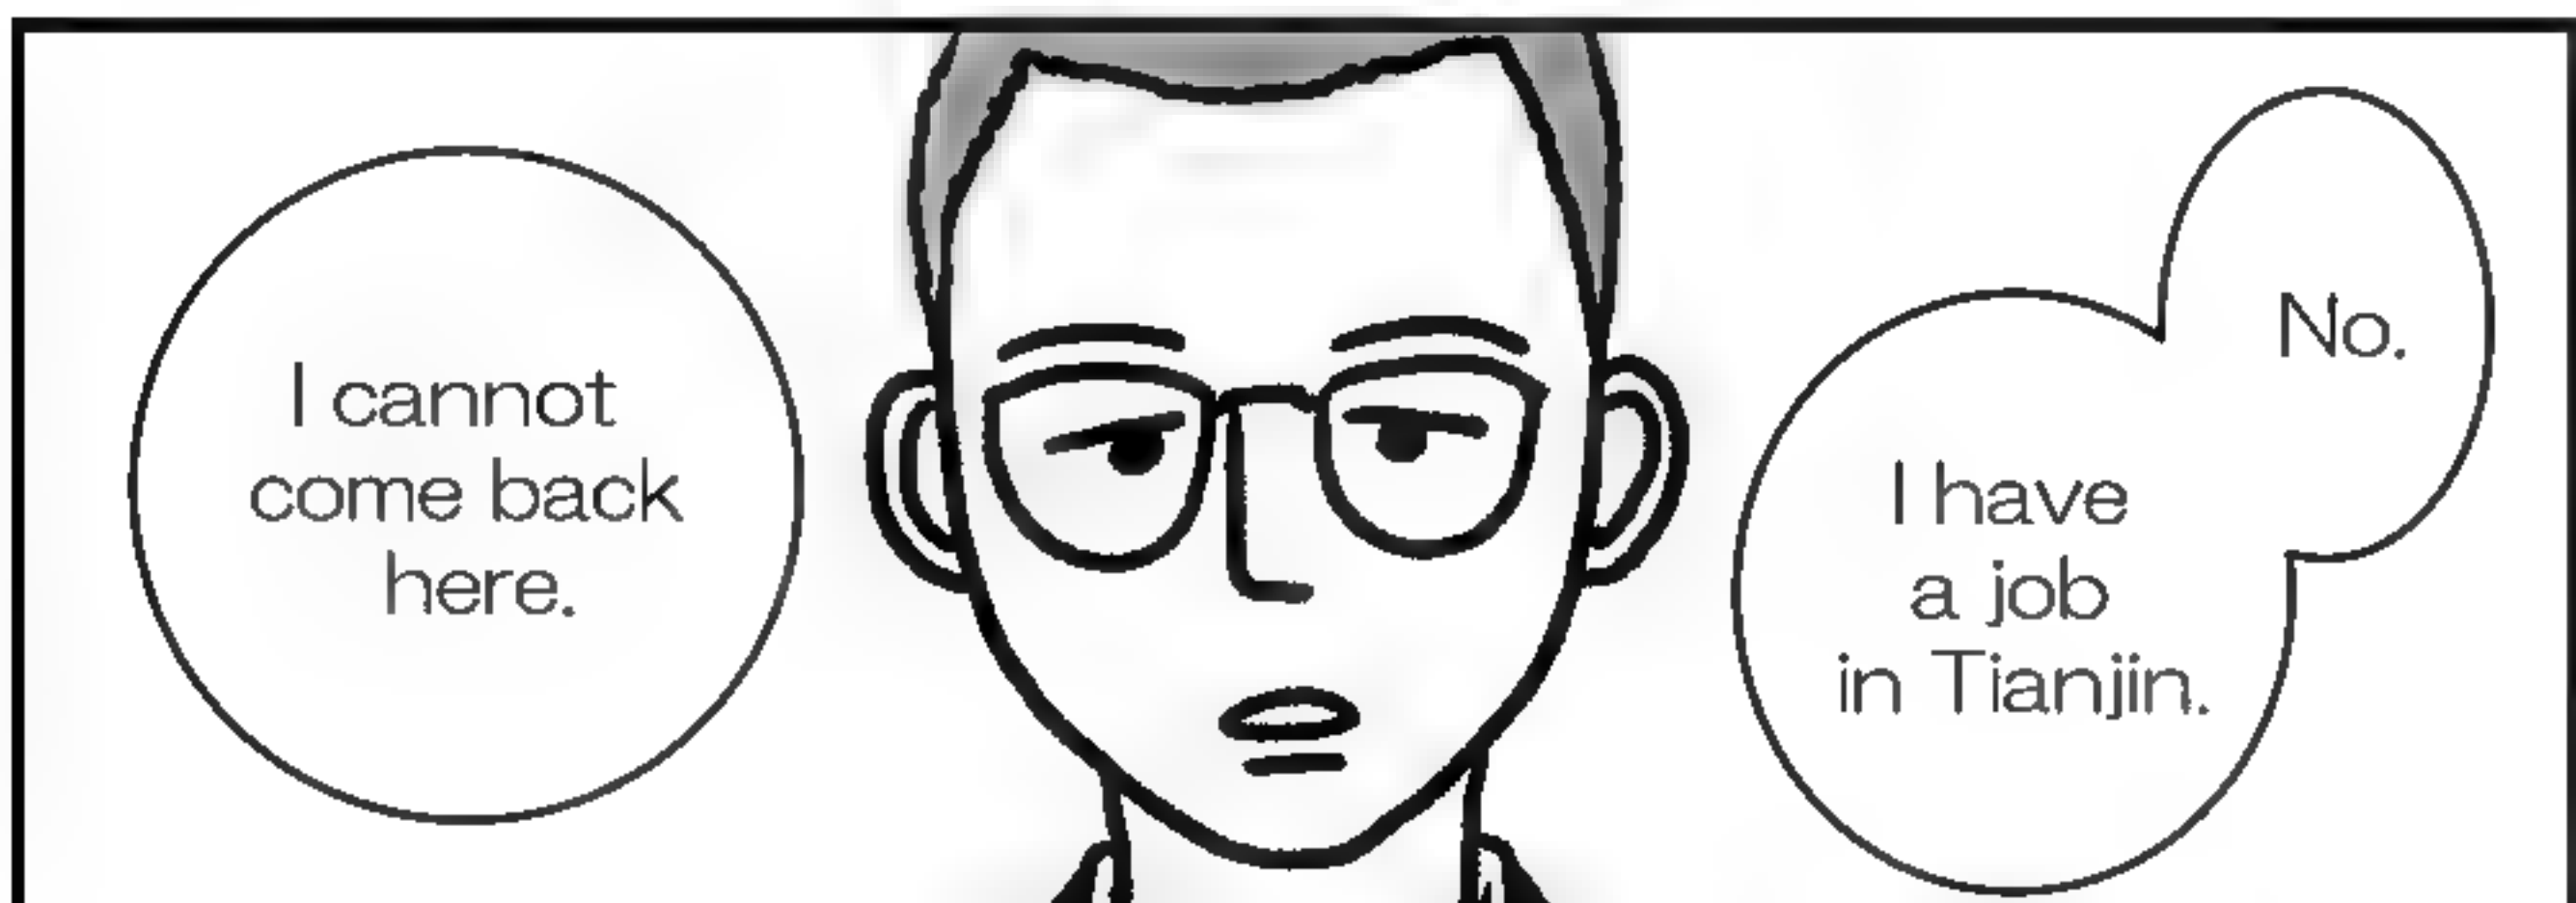

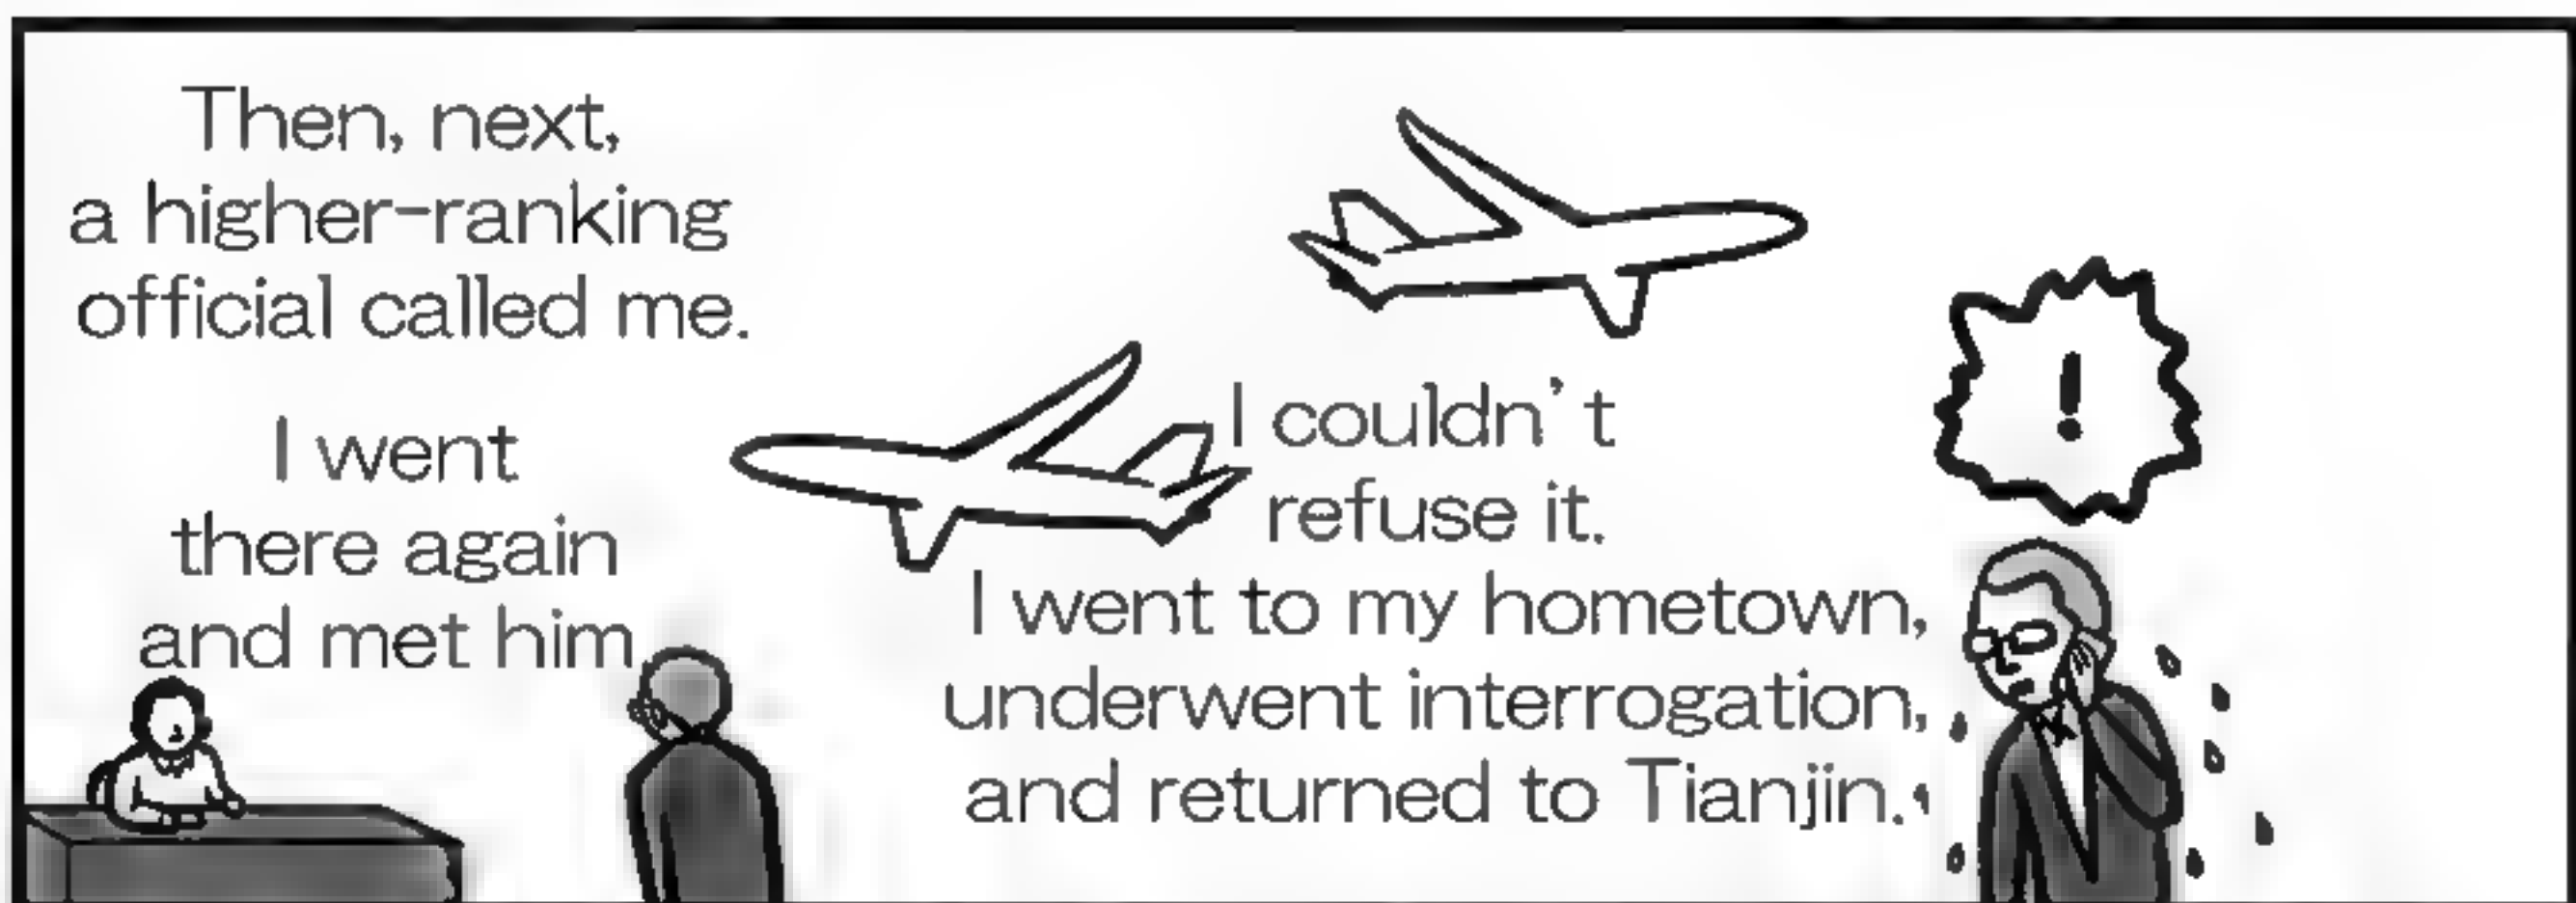

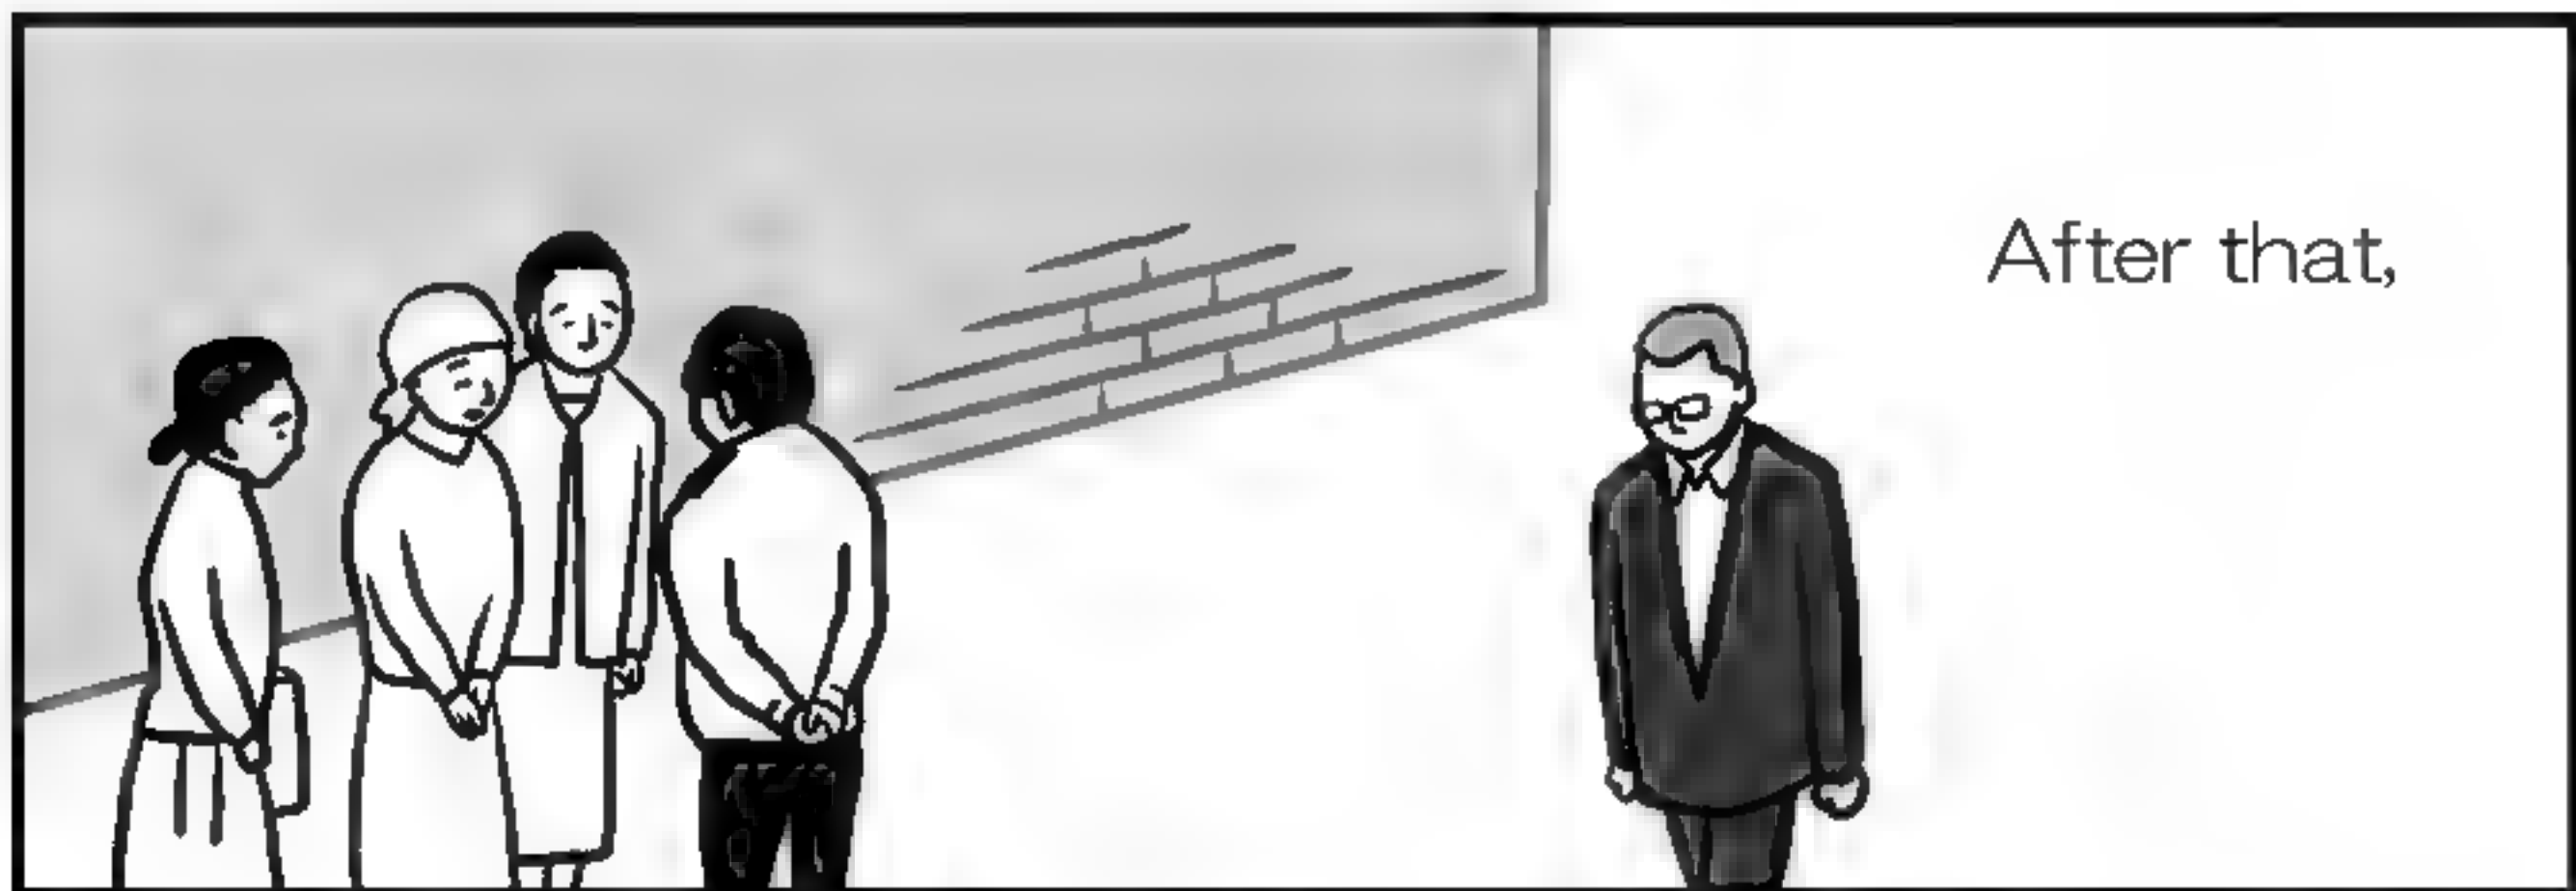

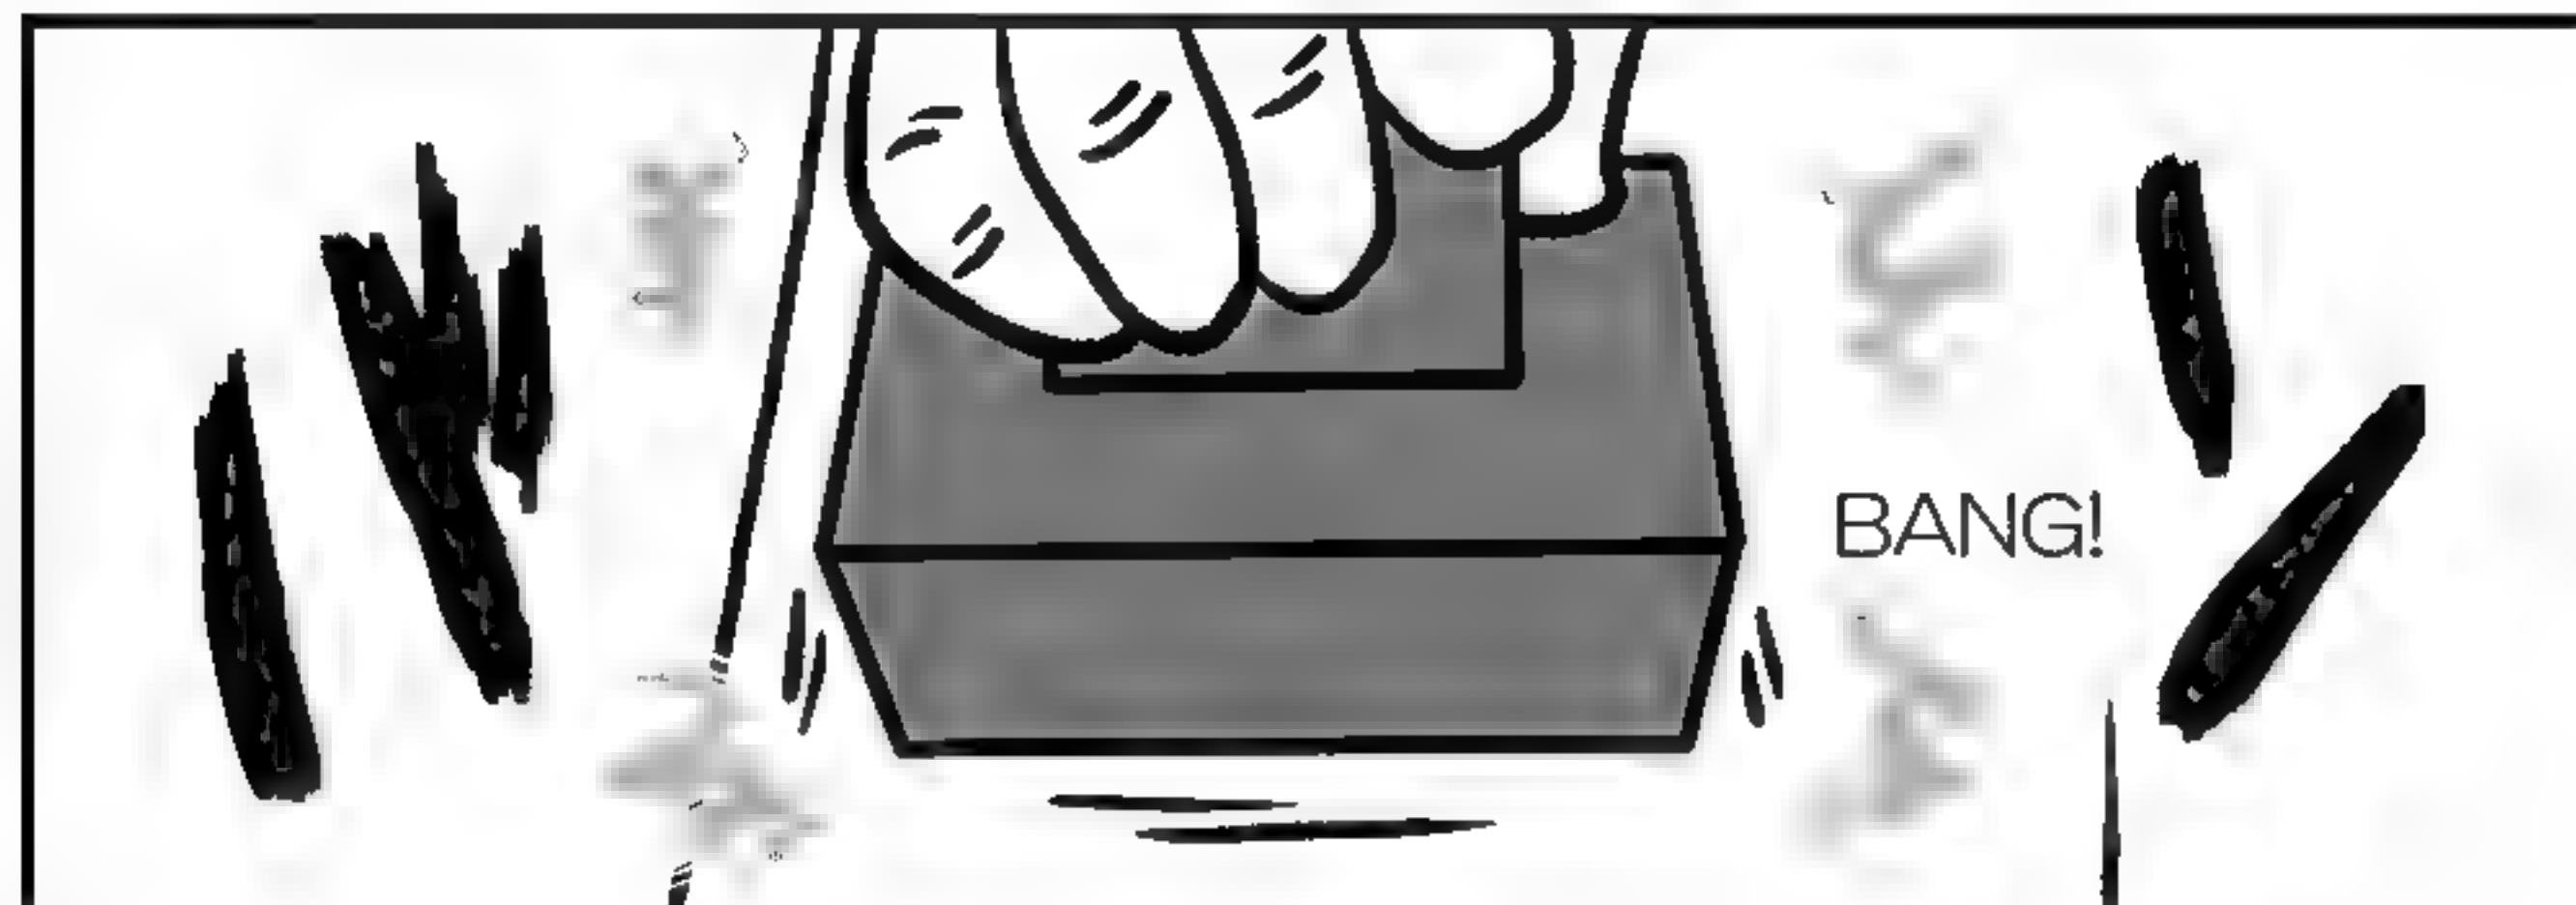

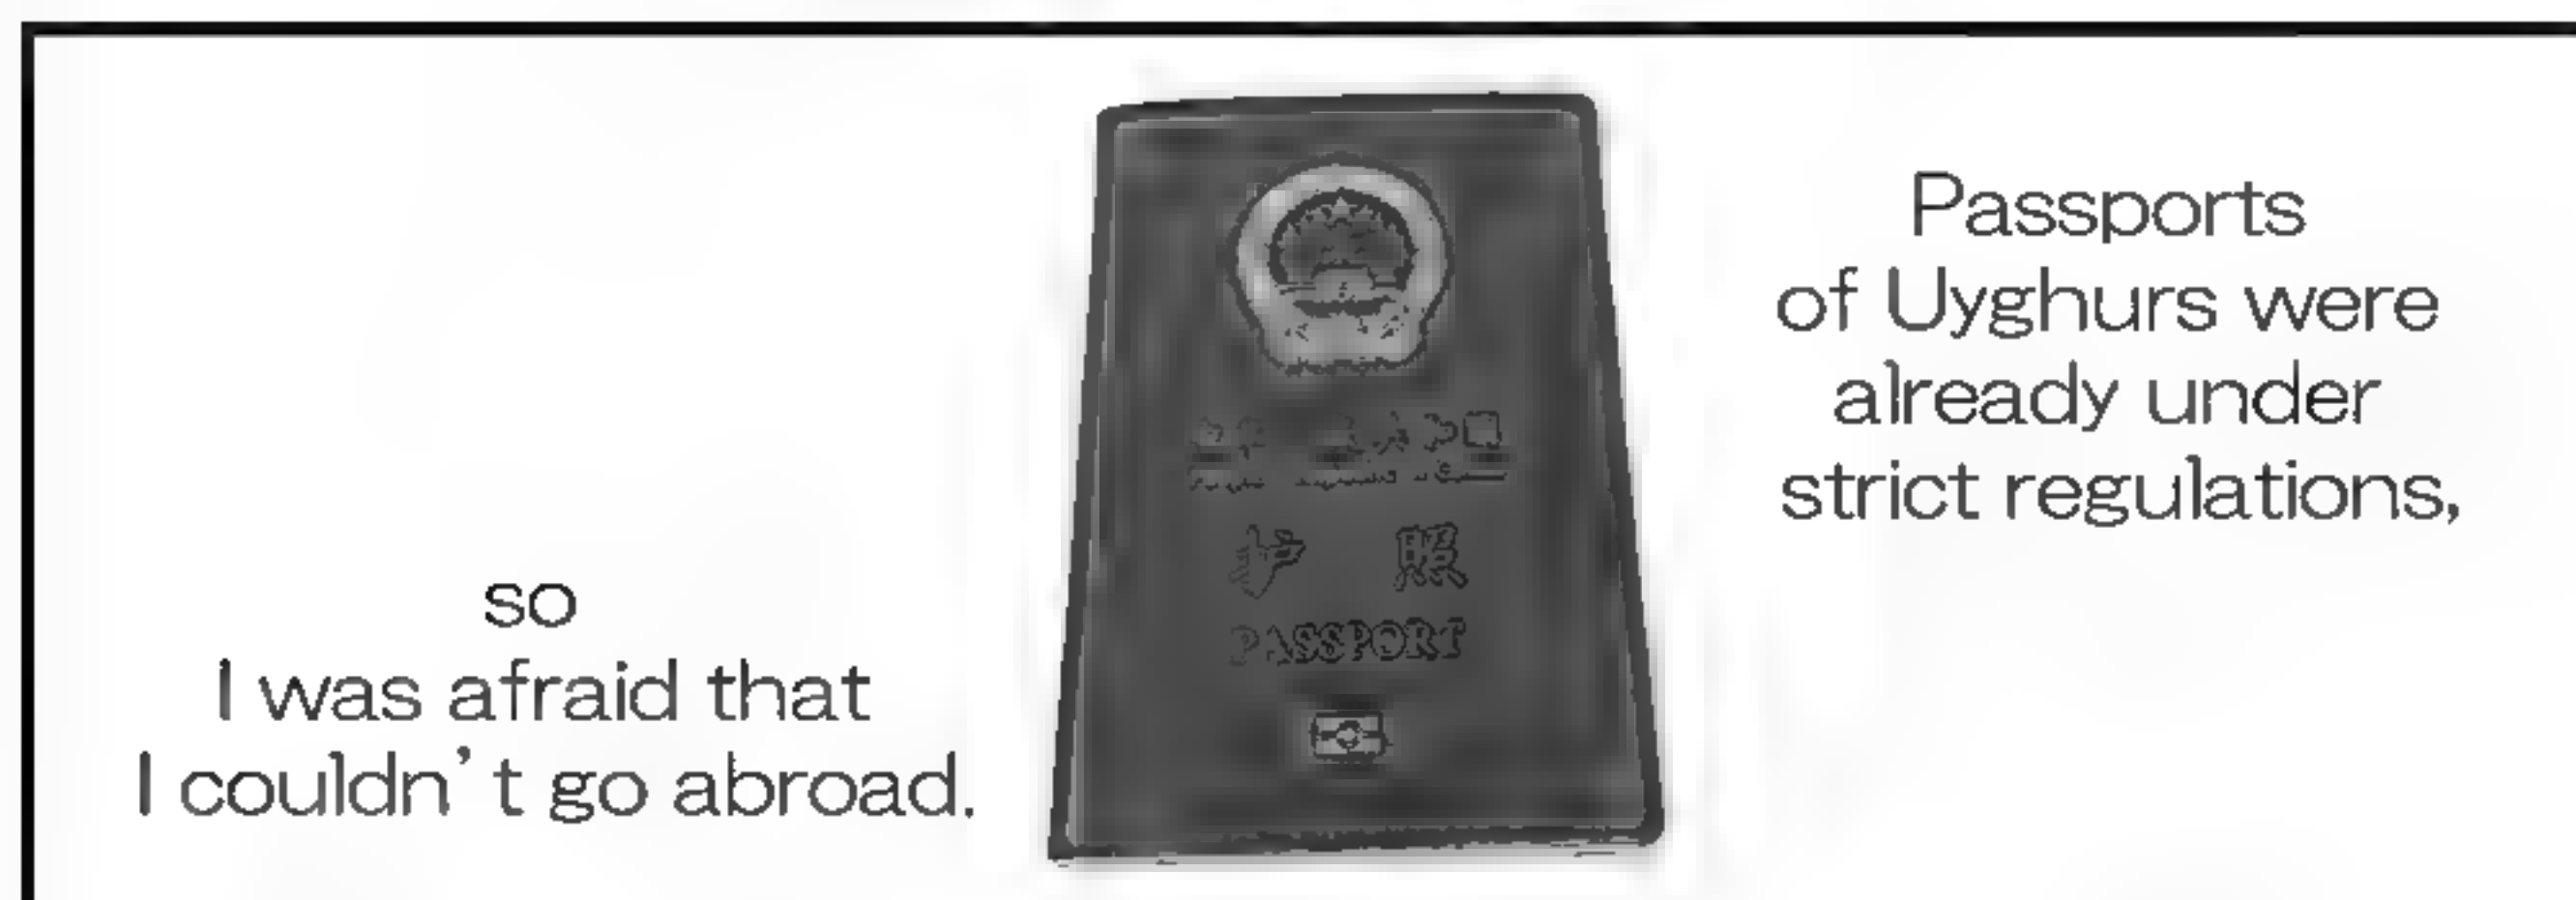

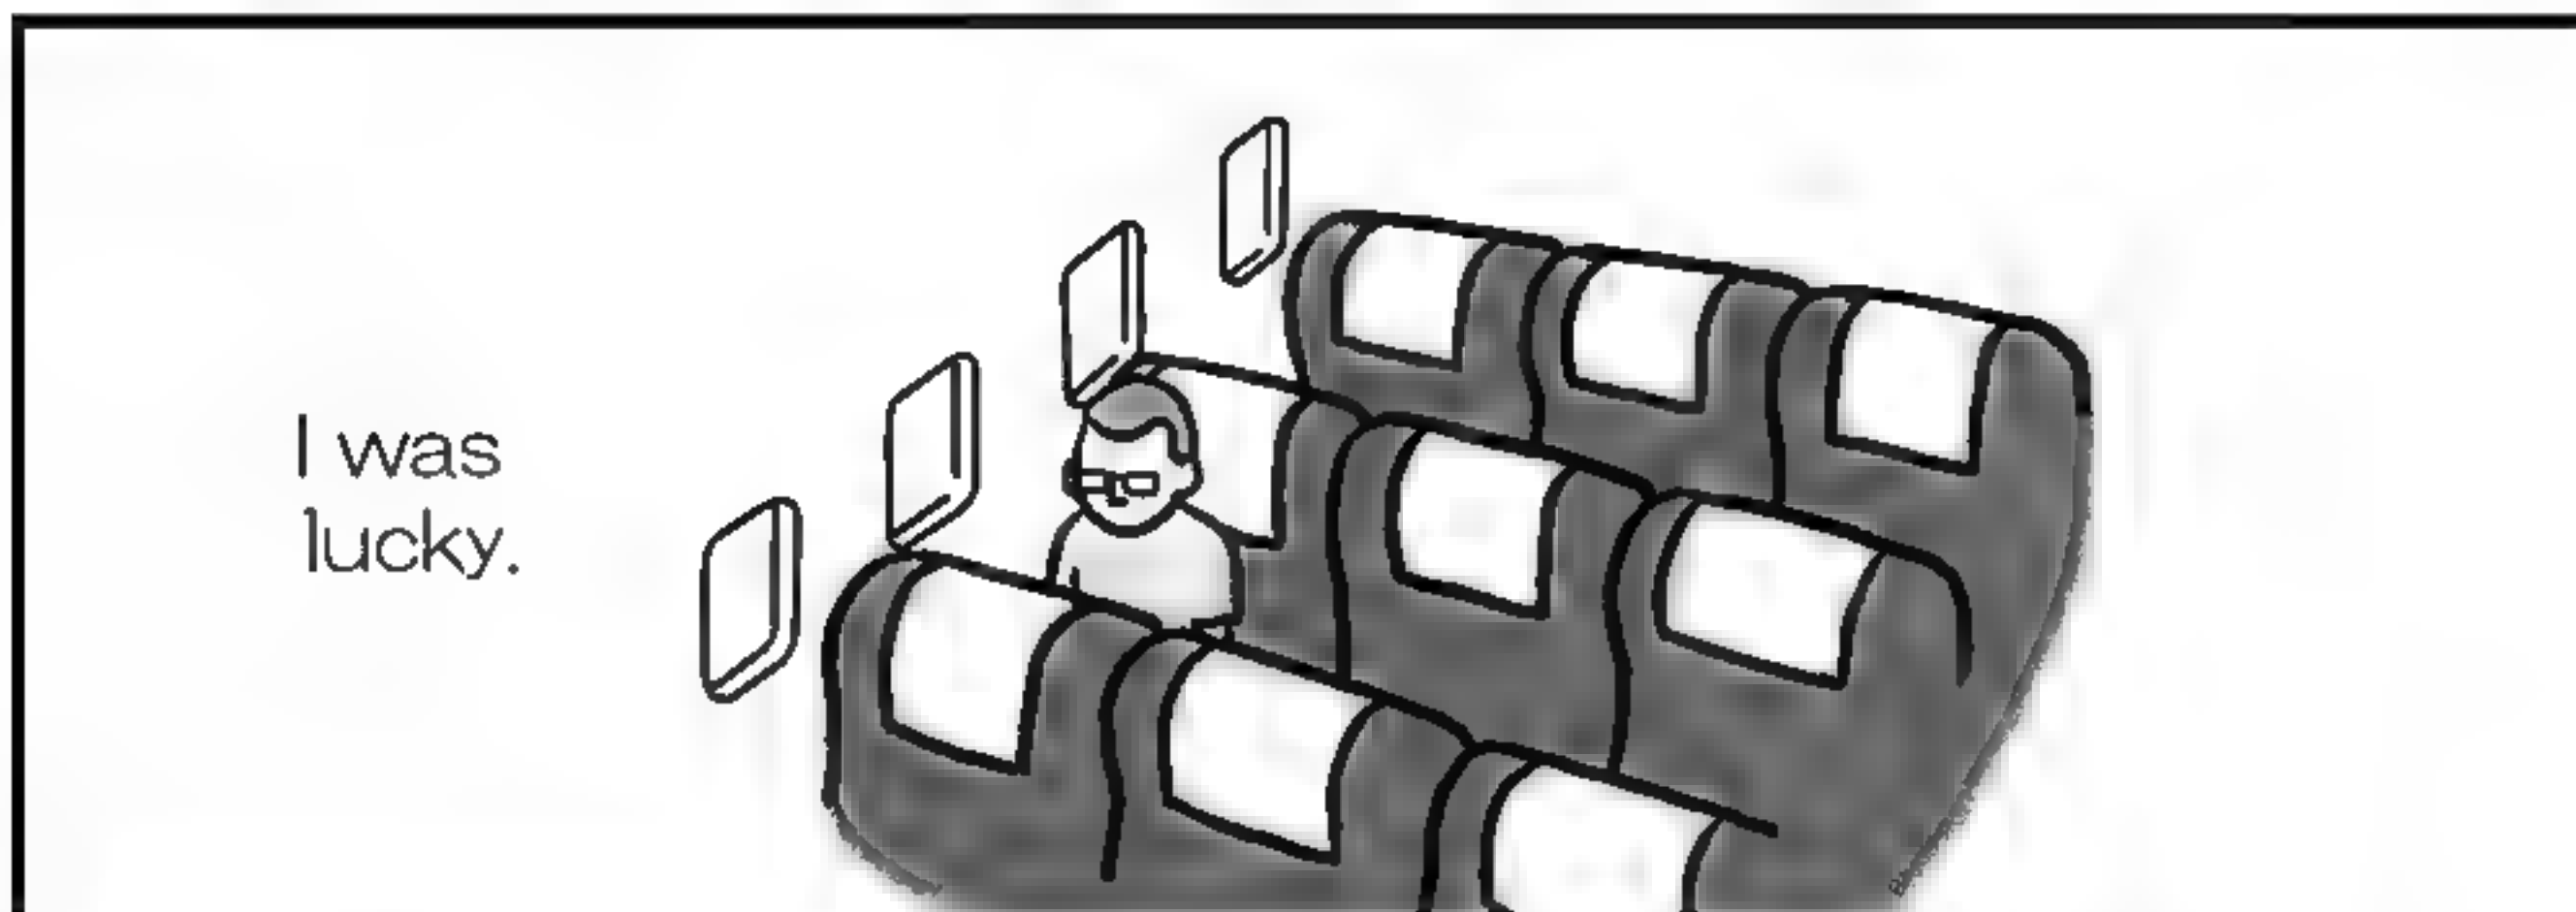

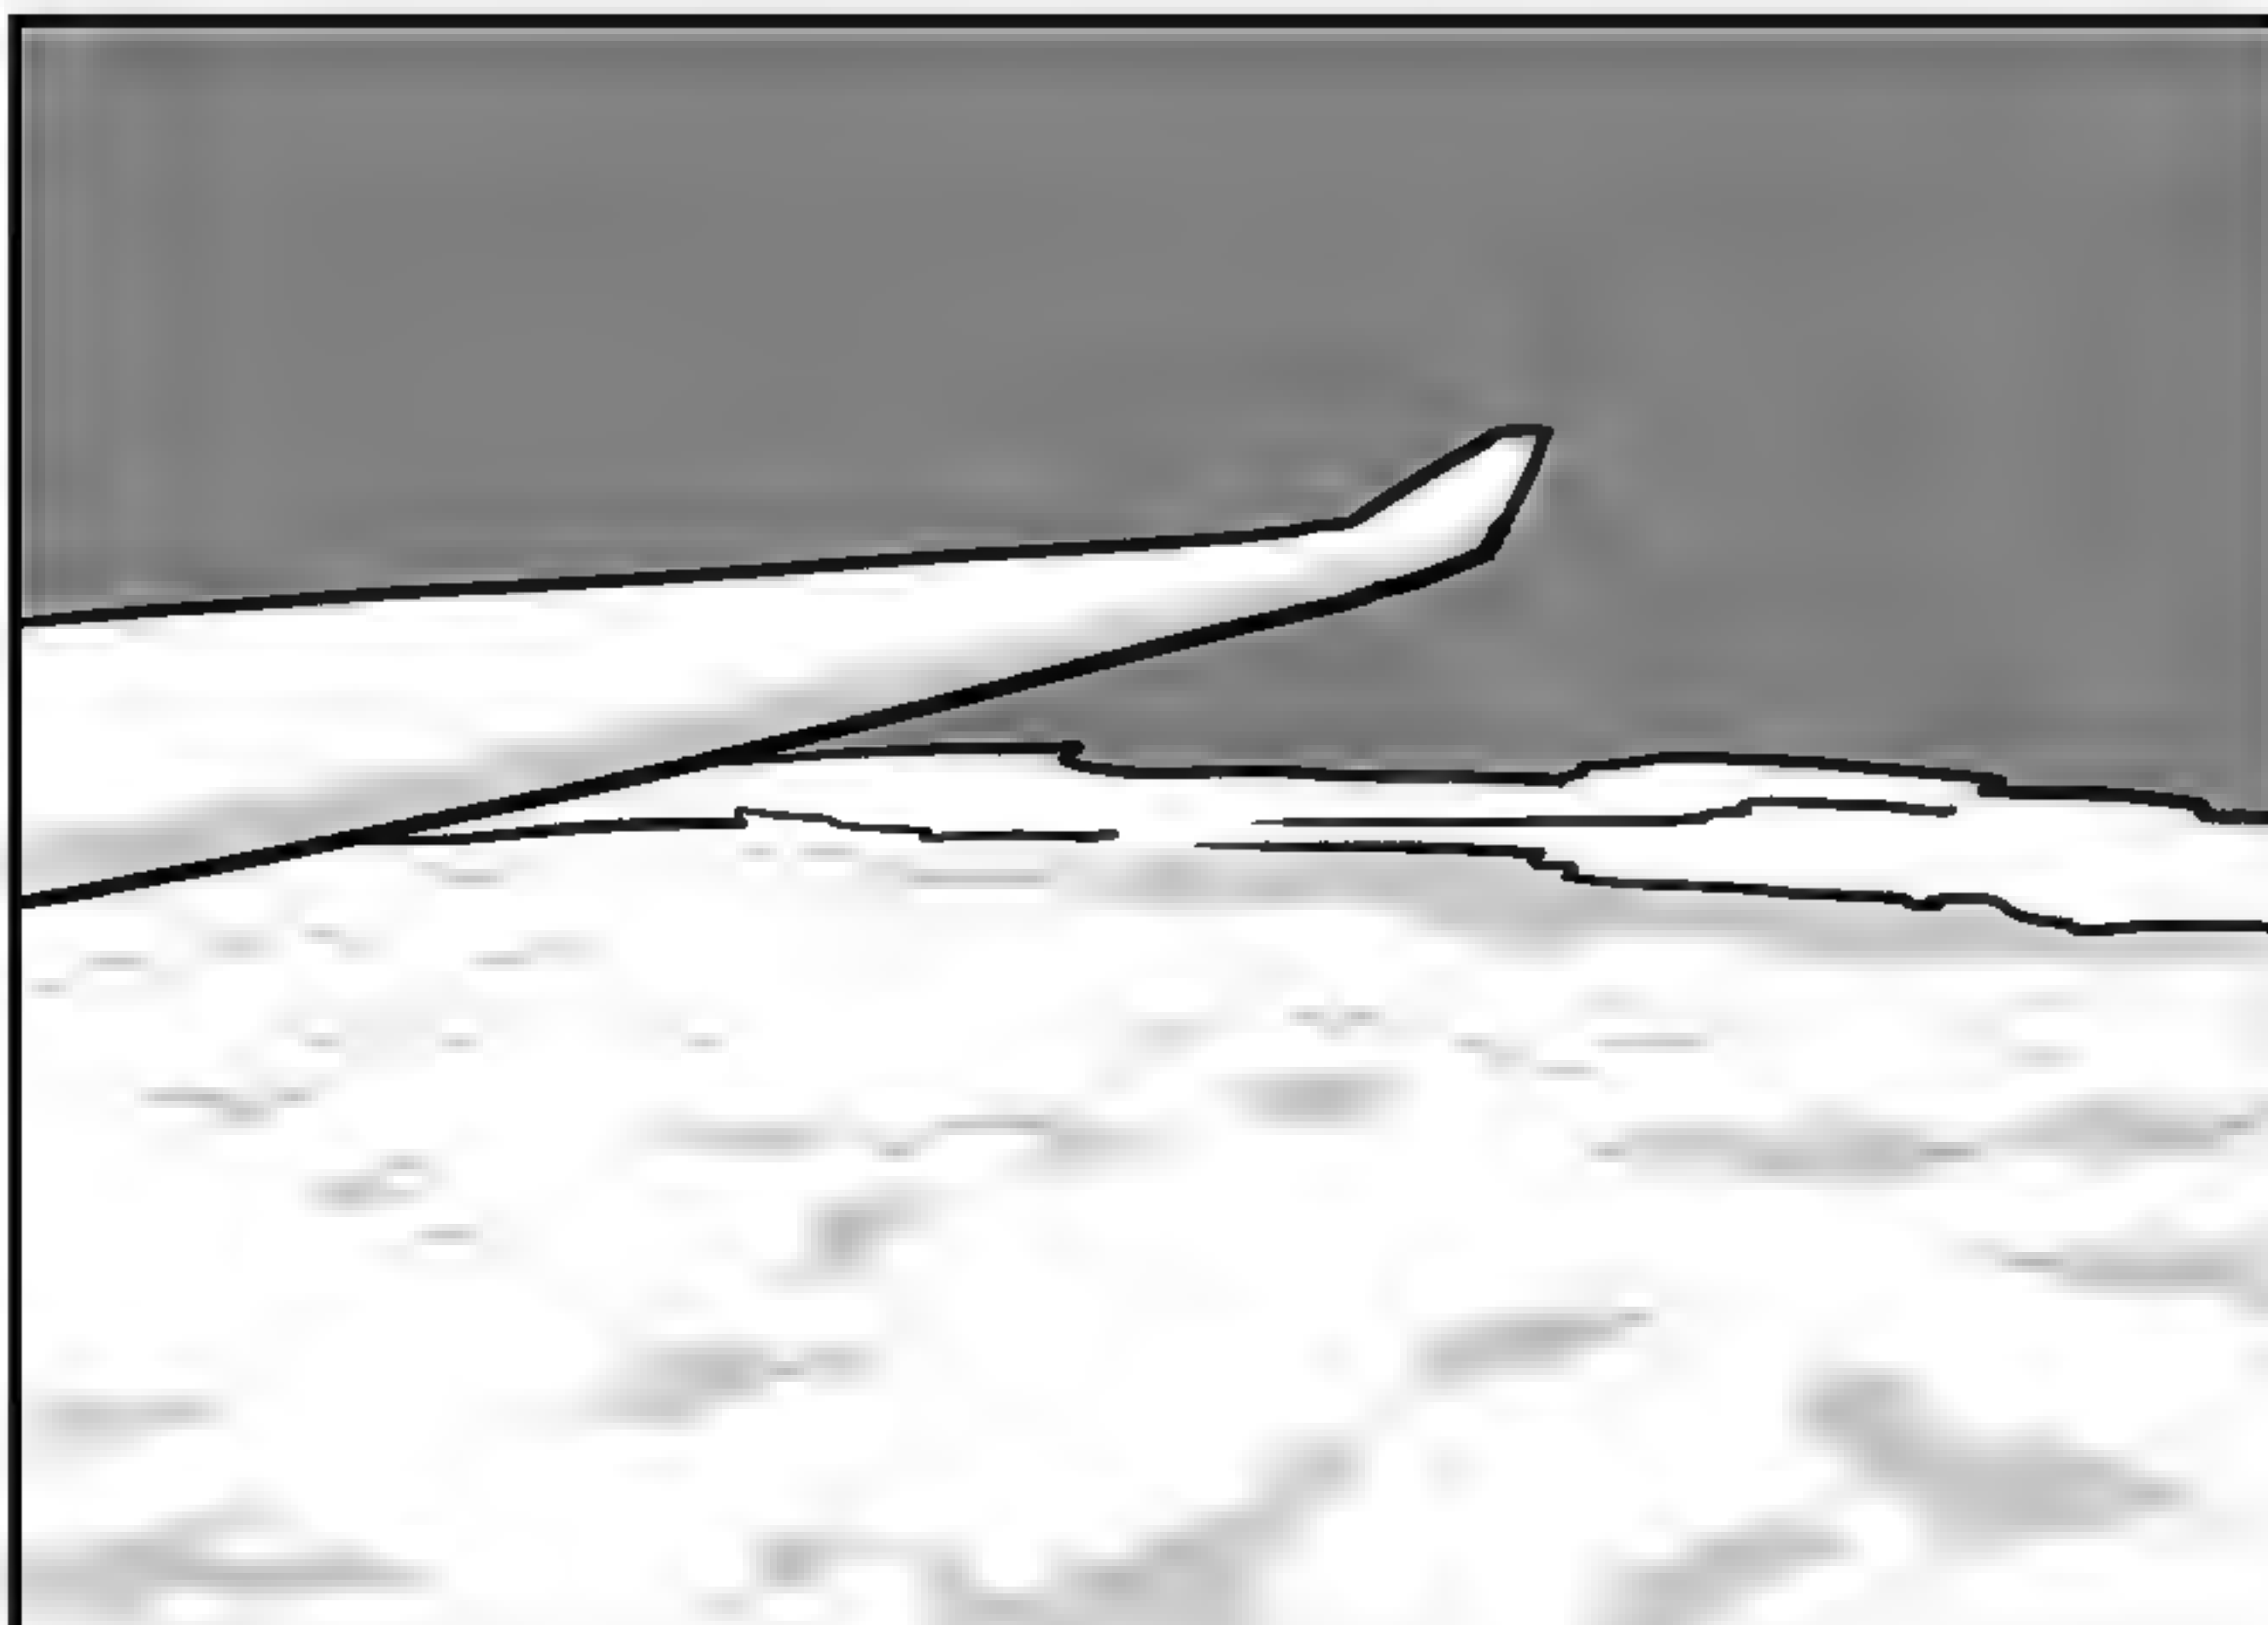

After that,

I should never go back there.

when I saw his look,
I felt that...

They will be told to go through the procedure
back in China.

All the Uyghurs who went back to China as they were told to...

If Uyghur parents apply for a passport
of their child
born abroad,

the Chinese Embassy
won't issue it.

went missing.

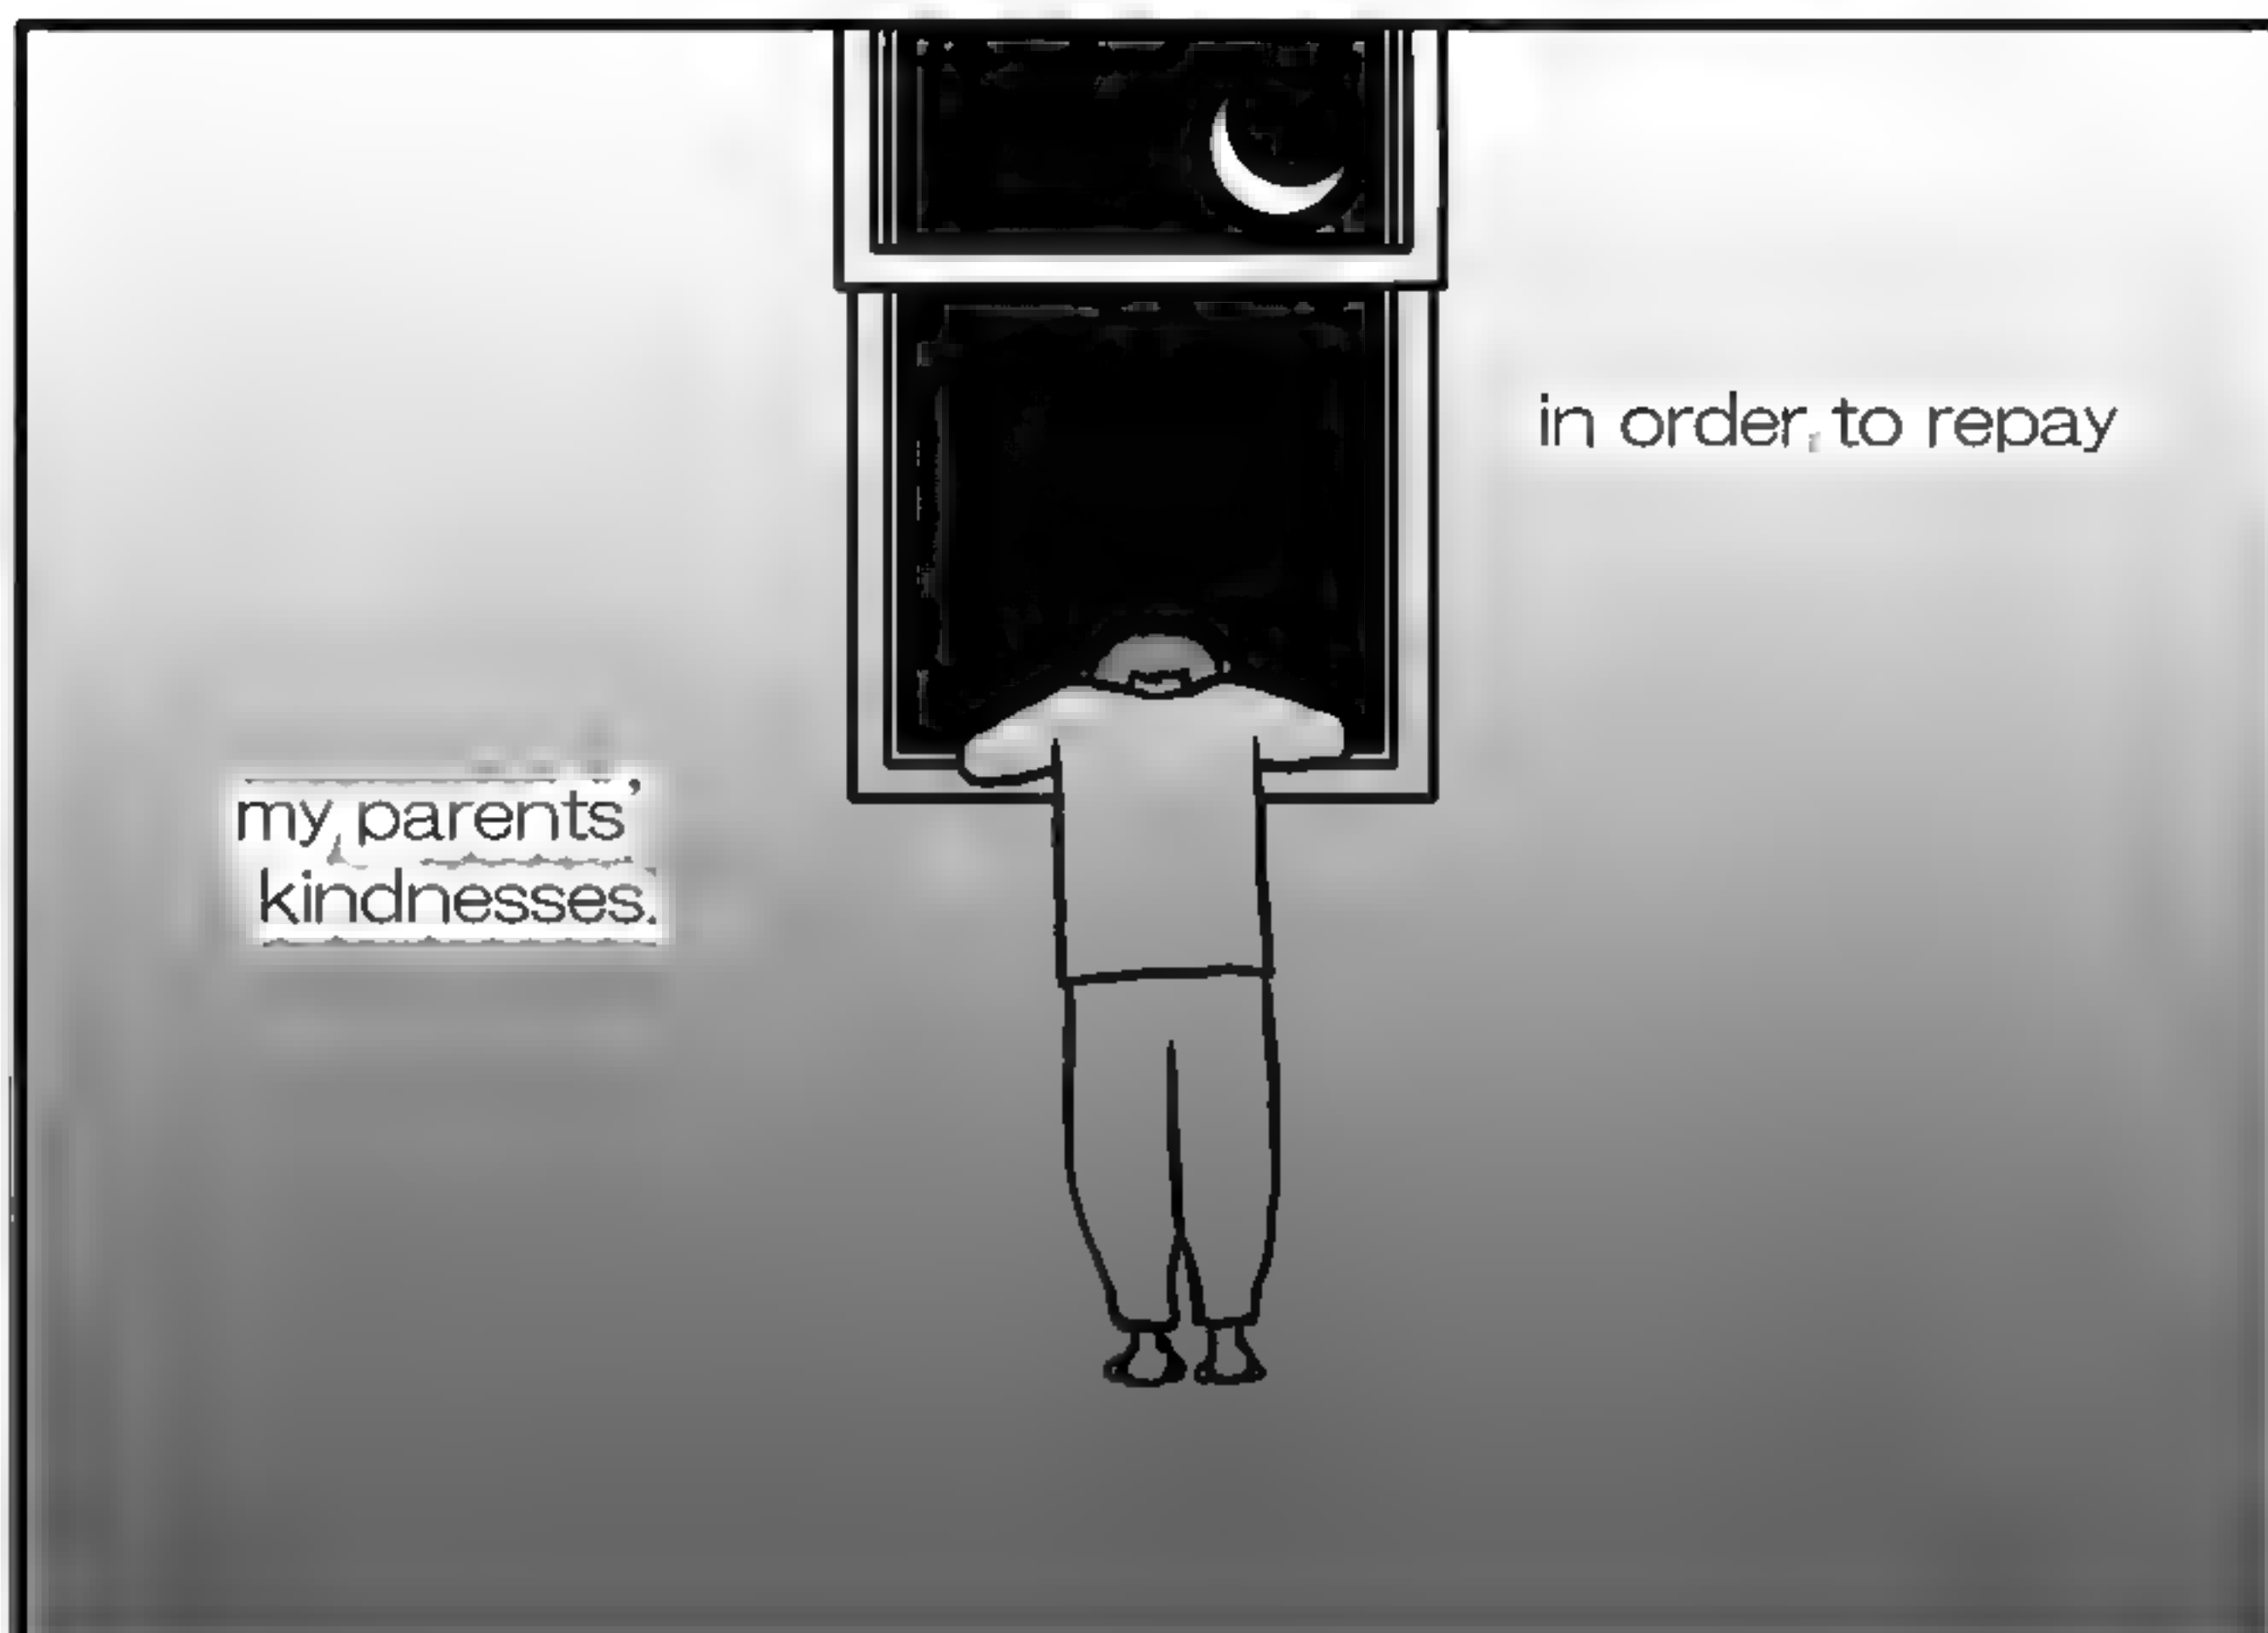

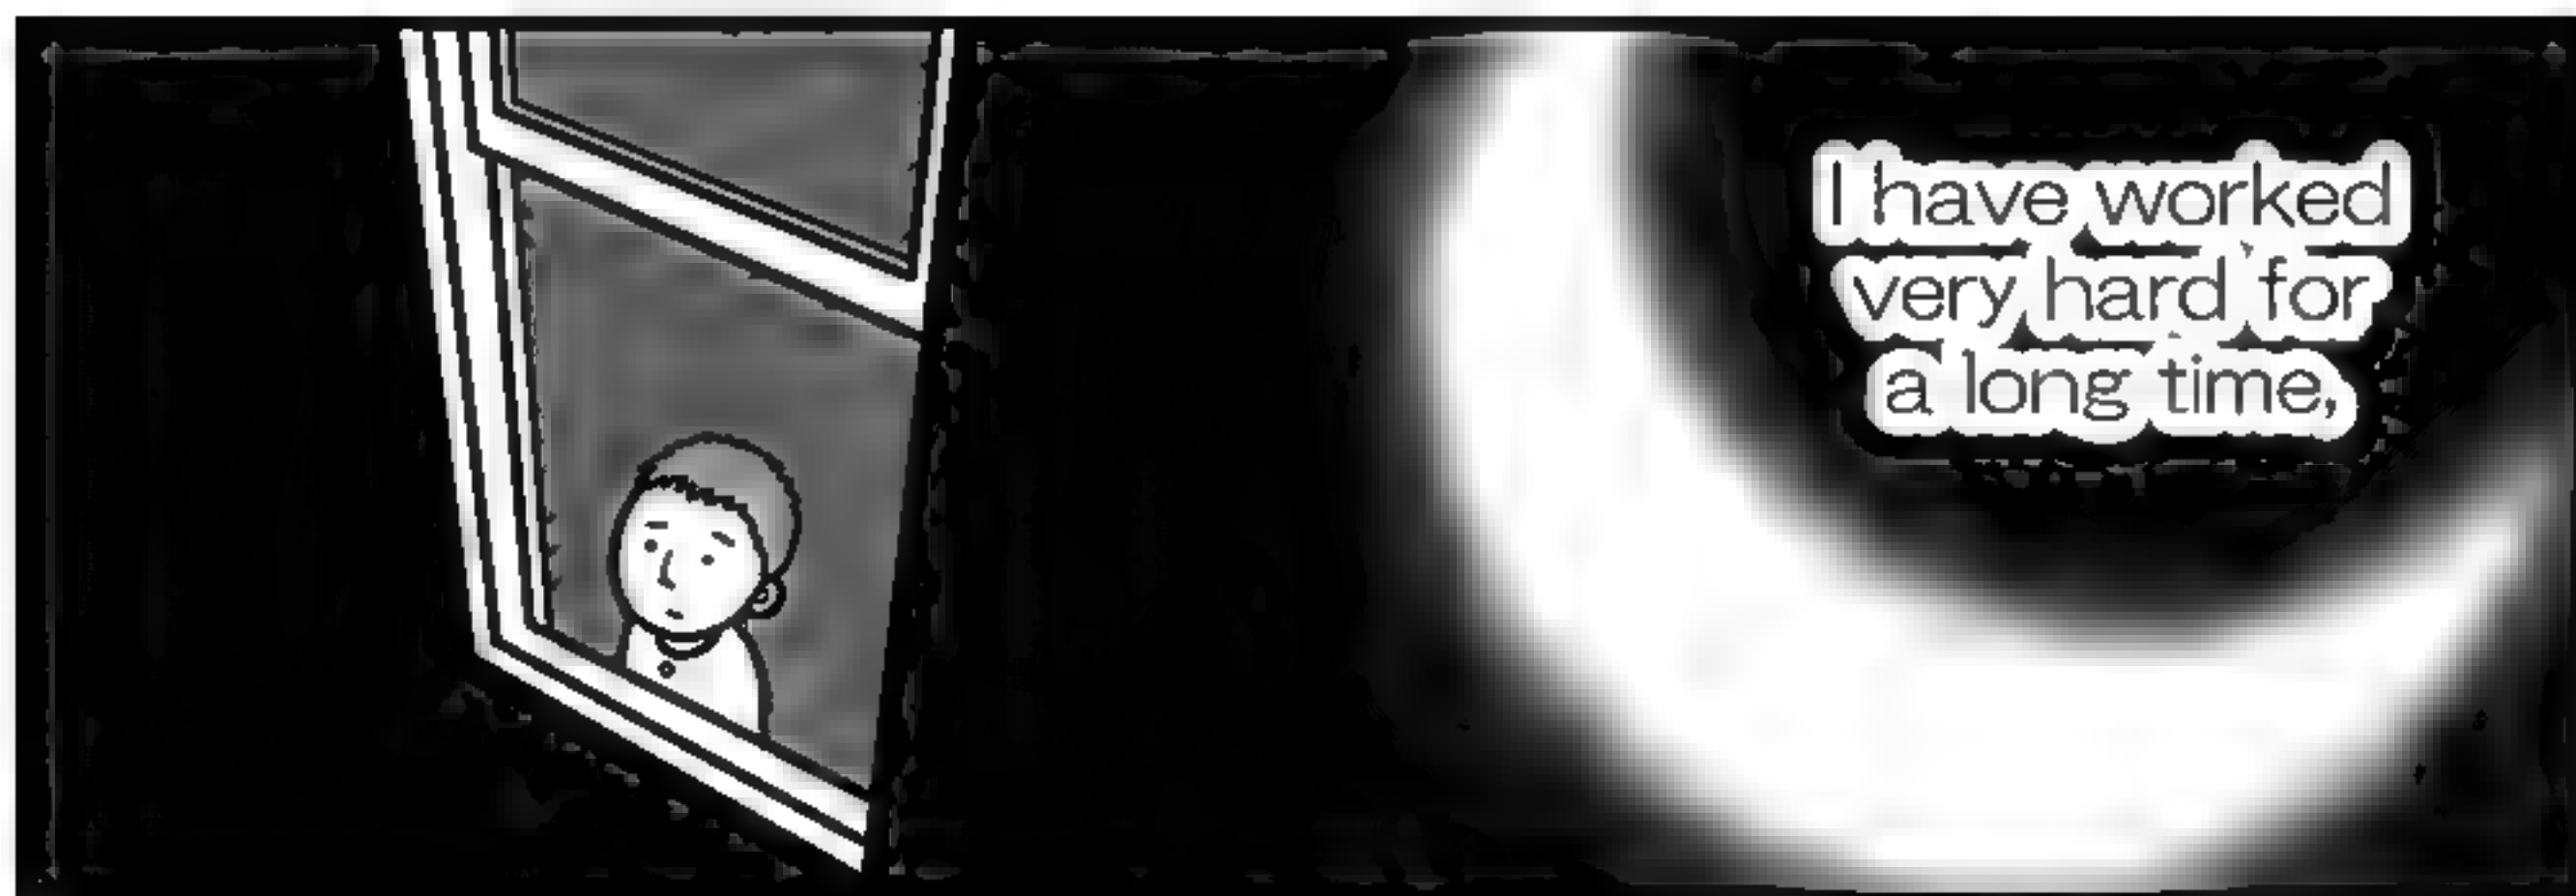

I feel ambivalent now.

I have grown up away from my parents.

In schools and offices,

I have got along with many Chinese.

Daddy,

Today
you are a 50-year
-old big man.

父亲啊，今天是你50岁生日，儿子为你庆生。再坚持一下，相信那一天到来，
把你从赤匪魔掌中救出来！

Salam canım babam. Bugün senin doğum günün, 50 yaşın kutlu olsun. Az

Daddy, happy birthday to you. Today you are a 50-year-old big man. Please come soon.

happy

My family's phones
died.
I cannot contact them.

My sister's SNS has been left untouched
for three months.

Even now
at this moment,
Uyghurs are being destroyed.

If I remain silent,
nothing good will happen and I cannot see my family again.

So I decided to tell you the truth.

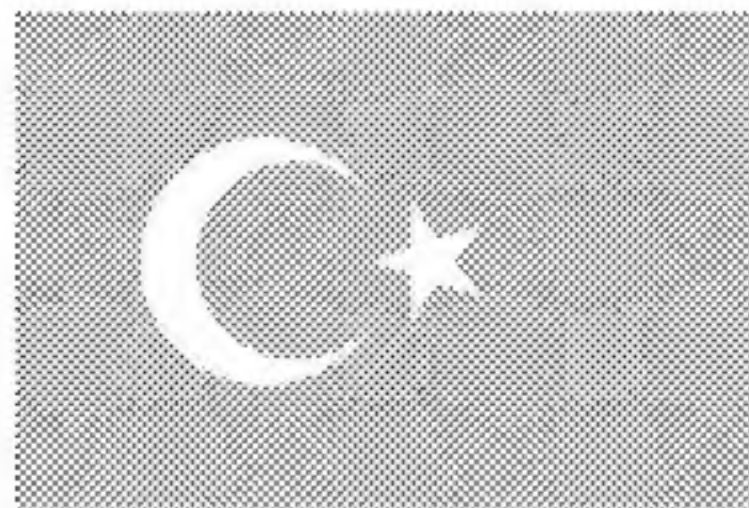

My name is

Muharram Muhammadali.

I have a request.

Please
understand our situation...

and share
this story with your family and your friends.
